All competitors are responsible for knowing and understanding their rulebooks:

Equestrian Canada Section A: General Rules and Regulations (2023), Equestrian Canada Section E: Dressage and Para Dressage (2023)

Please leave your dogs at home per the request of QSLB and the show facility owners.

COVID-19 Protocol

The QSLB Board of Directors will be closely monitoring Covid restrictions and regulations throughout the proposed 2023 show season. All local health unit rules will be followed at every show. Specific information will be available closer to the show dates and posted at qslbcadorna.ca

Insurance/Liability

Competitors are responsible for all insurance covering themselves, employees, owners, and horses, etc. All owners are personally responsible for damages to third parties caused by themselves, their employees, their agents, or their horses. They are therefore strongly advised to take out third-party insurance to provide full coverage for participation in equestrian events and to keep the policy up to date. (or to ensure that their memberships, such as OE, provide such insurance in such situations).

QSLB, show organizers and facility owners take no responsibility for any loss, theft, or damage to any equipment.

Liability waiver must be completed/signed and uploaded into Equestrian Entries (EE) for each show.

Vaccinations

Proof of Equine Vaccinations (Equine influenza and Equine Herpes Virus) per Equine Canada General Regulations Article A519, Vaccinations.

Proof of vaccination must be uploaded into Equestrian Entries (EE) with show entry to complete the entry.

The QSLB competition is sanctioned as a Gold, Silver or Bronze competition member of Equestrian Canada c/o House of Sport, 2451 Riverside Dr. Ottawa, Ontario, K1H 7X7 and is governed by the rules of EC. (A602.1)

- Every class offered herein is covered by the rules and specifications of the current rules of EC and will be held and judged according to the rules of EC.
- For the Gold and Silver shows, all horses must have a horse recording number and have paid the annual horse recording fee.
- Any horse entered in any class at a Bronze, Silver or Gold QSLB competition may be selected for equine medication control while at the event location. 9A602.50
- Per Article A801, every entry at an EC-sanctioned competition shall constitute an agreement by the person responsible that the owner, lessee, trainer, manager, agent, coach, driver or rider and horse shall be subject to the EC constitution and all rules of EC and any additional rules set by the competition. It is the responsibility of all individuals participating in any capacity in EC-sanctioned competitions to be knowledgeable regarding the EC constitution and the applicable rules of EC and the additional rules, if any, imposed by the competition. Do not participate in this EC-sanctioned competition in any capacity if you do not consent to be bound by the constitution and rules of EC and any additional rules imposed by the competition. (A602.7)
- All horse attending Equestrian Canada sanctioned competitions must have met the requirements of Article A519, Vaccinations. See Rules of Equestrian Canada, Section A, General Regulations, Article A 519, Vaccinations.
- When registering for EC sanctioned competitions, athletes must indicate the name of their coach on the entry form or spreadsheet. See Article 102, Safe Sport Environments.
- Only parents/legal guardians may sign the liability waiver form on behalf of a minor child. Trainers, coaches, agents, etc. may no longer sign this form. In the case of junior entries, parents or guardians are entitled to sign their children's entry form without holding an EC Sport License, provided they agree to abide by the rules and penalties contained in the Rule Book. (See A214.2).
- For freestyles, the rider must provide the show organizer with a functioning copy of their freestyle music, either a CD or USB. You must contact the show organizer prior to the date of the show with your music format to ensure proper equipment will be available.
- A horse/rider combination may compete in any two, but only two consecutive levels and a maximum of four tests per day including freestyles for Introductory, Training and First levels, and three tests per day including the freestyle for Second, Third and Fourth levels and all FEI tests. (E 7.11.9)
- All horses including Hors concours and non-competing horses must have a competition number attached and visible at all times while at the event location.
- Masters Dressage classes are ‘not rated for EC awards’.
- NEW FOR 2023 - A non-status coach fee of $30 will apply to all athletes entering that list a coach that does not hold the appropriate credentials.

EC supports adherence to humane treatment of horses in all activities under its jurisdiction.

EC is committed to:

- Upholding the welfare of the horse, regardless of monetary value, as a primary consideration in all activities
- Requiring that horses be treated with kindness, respect and the compassion that they deserve, and that they never be subjected to mistreatment
- Ensuring that owners, trainers, and exhibitors and their agents exercise appropriate care and responsibility in the handling, treatment, and transportation of their horses, as well as horses placed in their care for any purpose
- Providing for the continuous wellbeing of the horse by encouraging routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals and competition officials to achieve the highest possible standards of nutrition, health, comfort, and safety
- Continuing to support scientific studies on equine health and welfare
- Requiring owners, trainers and exhibitors to know and follow their sanctioning organization's rules, and to work within industry regulations in all equestrian competition
- Reviewing, revising, and developing competition rules and regulations that protect the welfare of the horses.

In determining whether conduct or treatment is cruel, abusive or inhumane, the standard to be applied will be the conduct or treatment expected of a reasonable person who is informed and experienced in equine training and exhibition procedures. Individuals who interact with horses must also adhere to EC's policies as they relate to horse welfare.

Memberships & Entry Information

Entry Submissions

- Only online entries will be accepted at www.equestrianentries.com, please refer to the Equestrian Entries Online Entry Instructions Form on the QSLB website.
- Entry due date is listed under the specific show date, see show date, details and classes offered pages for detail information for each show.
- Refunds/Scratches: There will be NO refunds after the closing date of entries. Before the closing date money will be refunded except the Administration Fee. In the event the competition has to be cancelled, refunds will be given after all expenses to the organizing committee are covered. A horse substitution may be accepted at the discretion of the show organizer if sufficient notice is given.
- Late entries will only be accepted if time permits at the discretion of the show organizer. Late entry fee is $5.00
- Hors concours entries will be accepted if time permits at the discretion of the show organizer. All fees will apply.
- Non-competing horses, at the sole discretion of the show organizer and approved prior to show date, will be allowed with a completed entry form but must pay the administration fee to receive a number.
- Should the show become over-subscribed prior to the entries closing, QSLB members will be granted preferred entry, after which shows will be filled on a first come basis.

Limitations

QSLB reserves the right to: limit entries, divide or combine classes and govern all conditions of the competitions, subject to the rules of Equestrian Canada.

QSLB Membership

Memberships run from January 1, 2023 through to December 31, 2023. Joining QSLB will allow you to participate in year-end awards as well as reduced costs for QSLB Shows and QSLB Clinics.

Membership forms available online at QSLBcadora.ca

- See class schedule listed on each individual show page for a list of classes offered.
- Para dressage classes will be offered with some show facility restrictions. Please contact the show organizer to discuss.
- All classes in all shows will be offered as Adult Amateur (AA), Open and Junior. Riders must designate on the entry form their status - AA (as declared on current EC Sport License), Open or Junior to ensure that QSLB submits the correct stats to EC and OE.
- Results will be calculated separately for Junior riders only if there are 3 or more Junior riders in a class. Freestyles will be offered as Test of Choice class.

- When there is only one horse and rider combination in any class, ribbons and prizes shall be awarded in accordance with following chart of percentage. No ribbons or prizes shall be awarded below 5th place.

1st	60% or higher
2nd	57% to 59.9%
3rd	54% to 56.9%
4th	51% to 53.9%
5th	All others

Test of Choice Classes

- Test of Choice (TOC) is offered in each level. All tests at the same level are included in one class for the TOC. You select what level and test you want to ride when you make your online entry. You will be required to manually type the test you want to ride once you select the appropriate TOC class. You may compete against another rider riding in the same level but using a different test.
- Tests ridden in Test of Choice classes may be used as qualifiers for Gold Provincial/Regional/National championships as well as for Silver championships and team qualification, if permitted in the team qualification criteria (E 7.31.1). Tests ridden in Test of Choice classes may be used to qualify for Gold, Silver or Bronze show championships (E 7.31.2). Organizing committees may offer Test of Choice classes in any division where it is beneficial for the competition and competitors i.e. where it is expected that there will be several one entry classes such as for FEI classes (E 7.31.3).
- You may ride the same test twice at a show by selecting that particular test as a class and also entering the same test in the TOC class.
- Example 1: You are interested in showing Silver Level 1 and riding multiple tests in the same day. For the June show you can enter Silver Level 1, Test 1 as well as Silver Level 1 TOC class. Within the TOC class you select to ride Test 1 again or chose to ride test 2 or 3.
- Example 2: You are interested in riding the maximum number of classes in a day (3) at Level 2 and have a Silver Membership. At the June show you can opt to ride Silver Level 2, Test 1 as well as Silver Level 2 TOC class (opt for Test 1, 2, or 3). You may also ride Bronze Level 2, Test 1 or Bronze Level 2, TOC class (opt for Test 1, 2, or 3).

Equestrian Canada Dressage Masters Test of Choice

The Masters Test of Choice is an Equestrian Canada (EC) dressage class that provides senior riders, 60 years and older, the opportunity to participate in a dressage class that is exclusively their own in an environment that provides a fair playing field for senior riders wherein each will compete against their peers at all levels of skill, from beginners to advanced.

Details:

- Masters classes are open to riders 60 years of age and above.
- Any EC sanctioned dressage competition may offer the Masters Test of Choice.
- The class will be offered as a Miscellaneous Test of Choice class as per the EC Rules,
 - Section A: General Regulations, A503 and will include all levels, national to FEI.
- In the event of a large number of entries, the class may be divided into two - lower and upper dressage levels - with separate sets of ribbons.
- The class will be included in the competition prize list with the appropriate entry fee.
- The class will feature one test per day and may have a class championship.
- Scores from Masters classes will not count towards EC championships or awards programs.
- Masters riders may also compete in non-Masters dressage classes.
- To facilitate ease of riding, the following accommodations are available in the Masters Test of Choice:
 - Rising trot is optional in all trot work.
 - Callers/riders may use headsets (someone, e.g., a steward, can stand beside the caller to ensure no coaching takes place).
 - Entry bell/whistle can have a secondary indicator (e.g., someone can raise an arm once the bell rings).
 - Equipment accommodations may include any or all of the following:
 - Looped reins;
 - Converters on double bridle to create single rein;
 - Gel or fluffy seat covers;
 - And/or, Two whips.
- Judges for the Masters Test of Choice must be EC certified Dressage Judges at the Basic, Medium or Senior level.

Tests

*All tests are ridden in a 20m x 60m ring.

Freestyles Test of Choice Class

For freestyles, the rider must provide the show organizer with a functioning copy of their freestyle music, either a CD or USB. You must contact the show organizer prior to the date of the show with your music format to ensure proper equipment will be available.

Freestyle eligibility for riders in Gold and Silver competitions (all EC levels and FEI freestyle levels): A horse/rider combination must have obtained the following prior to competing in a freestyle: a minimum score of 55% in a dressage test at the same technical level, or higher, as the freestyle they wish to enter (e.g. 55% in First or Second Level to compete in the First and/or Second Level Freestyle). The dressage score may have been obtained at an EC Gold/Silver dressage competition prior to the competition or may be obtained at the same competition in which they wish to enter the freestyle. Note: Bronze competitions require no minimum technical score.

When the rider selects Freestyle TOC class, they must input Bronze/Silver or Gold as well as the EC/FEI level.

- Class is NDPC Test-of-choice.
- Rider must select any Bronze/Silver/Gold test to act as their NDPC class.
- Ponies who do not have a pony card MUST be measured by the steward at EACH SHOW.
- The result of the NDPC TOC Class will span Bronze/Silver and Gold levels each show day.
- Ribbons will be awarded to 6th place. Champion and Reserve Champion ribbons will be awarded by QSLB.
- NDPC class will count toward a horse's maximum 4 tests per day.
- NDPC competitors must hold all qualifications required to compete at chosen level (Bronze/Silver/Gold).
- Classes are part of the regular show and will count for QSLB year-end and be sent to EC/Cadora.

NDPC Year-End Awards

All tests ridden in Pony-Only classes may be entered in NDPC Canadian Year-End Awards. The rider must be a member of the NDPC. NDPC Canada Members can have scores from any Equestrian Canada Bronze, Silver, and Gold shows entered for Year-End Awards. Show scores must be submitted to the NDPC by competitors.

The National Dressage Pony Cup showcases the exceptional talent, training, and commitment of ponies, their owners, breeders, trainers, and riders in the art and sport of dressage. NDPC encourages competition at every level, for riders of any ability, of age, and ponies of any breed or mix of breeds to compete and enjoy their experience. The NDPC partners with Equestrian Canada Bronze, Silver, and Gold shows around Canada to offer our Partner Show Program. You do not need to be a member to compete in a Partner Show. All scores in 'pony only' classes will automatically be entered in our Year-End Awards Program, where you will be competing with ponies across the country. Learn more at www.DressagePonyCup.com

QSLB Annual Awards Program for 2023

- Riders must be QSLB members prior to the last show (September) to be eligible for year-end awards.
- Only QSLB Bronze, Silver, or Gold show results may be used to tabulate the winners.
- Horse/rider combination must have entered, competed in, and have scores from two separate shows of the same category (Bronze/Silver/Gold) in the same division to be eligible for year- end awards.
- Year End calculation: $[(\text{Highest score Show A}) + (\text{Highest score show B})] / 2 = \text{Year End Score}$
 - Highest Year End Score = Champion, Second Highest Year End Score = Reserve
 - If you enter more than 2 shows, the two highest scores from two separate shows will be used.
- To qualify for Year End Championship Awards, the average score must be 60% or above.
- Junior High Point Award: an average of the top scores for B/S/G shows.
- Show High Point Rider: Senior and Junior high point rider will be awarded for each show day at the AGM.
